October 12: Early morning departure from Heritage Academy and travel to Washington, DC. A snack and drink will be included along with rest breaks as needed and an on-your-own lunch stop en route. Arrive in Washington, D.C., and begin with an orientation tour that includes a stop at the Jefferson Memorial and the MLK Memorial. Dinner is included this evening before transferring to the hotel for check-in. Overnight security is included each night.

October 13: Breakfast is included daily at the hotel. Meet with your local DC guide and begin a full day of touring. Snap a memorable photo at the White House before enjoying a guided tour of the US Capitol, including tours of the Crypt, the Rotunda, and the National Statuary Hall. Lunch will be on your own today. Spend the afternoon visiting the National Archives, Ford's Theatre, and the WWII Memorial. Dinner is included tonight, followed by an Illumination tour of the monuments and memorials, featuring the Lincoln, Vietnam, and Korean War memorials. Return to the hotel for the night.

October 14: Breakfast and hotel check out this morning. Start the morning with a visit to Arlington National Cemetery to witness the Changing of the Guard at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, followed by a visit to the National Museum of American History. Lunch will be on your own before departing for home this afternoon. A snack and drink will be included along with rest breaks as needed, and a quick dinner stop en route. Arrive back at Heritage Academy after a great trip!
